Location

Upper House is a walker's paradise with the Black Mountains, the Brecon Beacons National Park and Offa's Dyke Path, all on your doorstep. The property commands an exceptional elevated position on Black Hill in West Herefordshire, with sweeping views across unspoilt countryside.

Despite its idyllic rural setting, the property enjoys excellent accessibility and connectivity. Hay-on-Wye, famed worldwide for its Literary Festival, is a short drive and offers a strong selection of independent shops and everyday amenities. The Cathedral city of Hereford is located to the north and provides retail and leisure facilities alongside a thriving cultural scene centred around The Courtyard. Hereford's historic core is home to an increasing number of acclaimed restaurants. There is an excellent choice of public and private schools in Monmouth, Hereford, Malvern, Cheltenham and Worcester.

The property is well positioned for regional and national travel, with rail services from Hereford and Abergavenny, and international airports at Bristol, Birmingham and Cardiff. The M50 and M5 provide swift access to the national motorway network, with London reachable in just over three hours.

Upper House Farmhouse

Upper House is a beautifully composed country residence where original character meets contemporary craftsmanship. Approached via a private drive with generous parking, the house occupies an elevated position at the centre of the property, overlooking the holiday cottages and formal gardens and enjoying panoramic views across rolling countryside.

Inside, the interiors are finished to an exceptional standard. Pastel tones, exposed beams, natural stone and oak floors, and bespoke joinery create a warm, elegant aesthetic throughout. At the heart of the home lies the open-plan kitchen and breakfast room, fitted with bespoke cabinetry and designed for both relaxed living and effortless entertaining.

The magnificent drawing room provides a dramatic focal point, with its full-height ceiling, mezzanine library, flagstone floor and large log-burning stove, all bathed in natural light. Stone steps lead to a hidden lower-ground suite, where the fourth bedroom benefits from its own en suite bathroom. Three further double bedrooms, each en-suite, continue the same exceptional level of design and finish found throughout the reception rooms and shared spaces.

The farmhouse accommodation briefly comprises:

Front Hallway

Impressive light entrance hall painted stone walls and natural flagstone floor leading to sitting room, kitchen and separate bedroom suite.

Sitting Room & Mezzanine Library

A magnificent, light-filled drawing room showcasing the perfect marriage of rustic architecture and refined elegance. Full-height ceilings with exposed beams rise above a striking mezzanine library, while a flagstone floor and a large wood-burning stove anchor the space with warmth and character. Thoughtfully curated furnishings and rich textiles create an inviting yet sophisticated atmosphere, ideal for both relaxed living and impressive entertaining. With two sets of French doors inviting you into the garden.

Internal Hallway

Leading to the ground floor bathroom, with built-in cupboards and stairwell to Bedroom 3.

Bathroom

Beautifully finished bathroom with double-sided bath, low flush toilet, walk-in shower and LED mirrors above the wash hand basin with a flagstone floor, towel rail and tiled walls.

Kitchen / Dining Room

The open-plan kitchen and breakfast room forms the welcoming heart of the home. Movable kitchen island, range cooker, American fridge freezer and dishwasher. Large stone fireplace housing woodburner. Contemporary cabinetry, quality appliances and bespoke joinery sit harmoniously alongside natural stone and oak finishes. Fresh white tones and generous natural light enhance the sense of calm, while the adjoining dining area offers an elegant setting for everyday meals or more formal gatherings. This is a space designed for both effortless living and stylish hosting. Door through to separate boot room and utility, with exposed beams.
